

MW-Gaia WG4-WG2 Workshop

Gaia and the Time domain, capturing the transient sky

Coimbra (Portugal), 13th-14th October 2022

The workshop Gaia and the Time domain, capturing the transient sky held in the University of Coimbra (Portugal), from 13th to 14th October 2022.

This was the third workshop of the CA18104 COST Action MW-Gaia and the first workshop of the Working Group 4 (WG4). The format of the workshop was based on invited reviews and contributed talks.

Scientific motivation of the workshop

The workshop in numbers

The workshop was attended by 67 researchers (3 remotely), 27% of them female.

The SOC and LOC had a 38 and a 40% of female researchers respectively.

From the total, 14 participants (34%, including invited speakers) had financial support by the COST Action.

There were researchers from 20 different countries in Europe (mostly Greece), Mexico, China, India and Australia.

There were 25 presentations. 75% of female participants presented while 55% of male participants did. There were 7 Invited talks (43% female) and 18 Contributed talks (33% female).

Regarding career stage there were 6 PhD students and 10 Early Career Researchers (39% of young researchers).

Report prepared by Lola Balaguer-Núñez.